Pursuant to the Court's Order at ECF 38, Plaintiff Gregg Berkeley ("Plaintiff") and Defendants Intel Corporation and the Administrative Committee of the Intel Minimum Pension Plan ("Defendants") hereby submit this Joint Status Report.

Plaintiff filed this action on January 23, 2023, and asserts putative class action claims under ERISA relating to the methodology the Intel Minimum Pension Plan uses to calculate pensions for married retirees. On April 3, 2023, the Defendants answered Plaintiff's complaint. ECF 22. The parties subsequently stipulated to participating in private alternative dispute resolution pursuant to Civil L.R. 16-8 and ADR L.R. 3-5. ECF 36.

The parties agreed to phase discovery to determine whether early resolution of the case was possible. ECF 33 at 8. As part of its first phase, Plaintiff sought and received information necessary to engage in meaningful mediation, which included recordkeeping data about the putative class's pensions and demographics, actuarial reports, and governing plan instruments.

The parties engaged in a full-day mediation before JAMS mediator Robert Meyer on August 31, 2023. The parties were unable to reach a resolution on that day. However, the parties are continuing settlement talks with the assistance of Mr. Meyer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties intend to proceed with discovery and litigation pursuant to the Court's Case Management Order at ECF 35.
